Victory.

THE "TECHS" GO DOWN BEFORE OUR TEAM 40 TO 0.

THE GAME.

The first game of football ever played on our campus was played last Saturday between our eleven and the "Techs" of Atlanta. The game was entirely too slow. The men did not play with the snap and ginger which should have characterized our work. The interference was not up to the standard which was set last year. The team only once got down to real work, and then they made ground at will.

The kicking of Frayer of the "Techs" was very good, and Holcombe's catching was excellent.

The following is the line up:

TECHS.	POSITION.	AUBURN.

in his course last session, and has the reputation of being the best read man in College.

Harry H. Smith, '95, M. S. '96, is teaching in Prof. Gillis' ('90) fine school at Brewton, Ala., where after school hours he gives the boys special instruction in athletic exercises, jumping, running, baseball, football, etc., and now and then lessons in turkey calling. Harry is quite popular in Auburn, and his loss in the team is seriously felt.

George B. Kelley, '96, is Assistant in Mathematics, and hopes to take off a C. E. or something closely related to it. Though life's pathway be a lane without a turning, yet he has succeeded in finding a delightful little corner where, undisturbed, he tranquilly dreams out his allotted existence, quite unmindful of the busy world without. He is an enthusiastic member of the bicycle club.

The Wirt Society.

AUBURN, ALA., Nov. 2, 1896.

All will be glad to hear that the Wirt Society is in a most flourishing condition. It has more members than it has had for several years. Its officers are as follows: President, G. M. Holley; Vice President, Conner; Secretary and Treasurer, Haughton.

Several nights ago, we elected as speakers for Thanksgiving day, Tate and Memminger. We depend upon their winning, and they must win.

On Saturday night, Oct. 31st, the members of the Websterian society honored us with their presence. We decided to have a mock trial. C. W. Stewart was accordingly accused of murder in Opelika. The members of his society were to defend him, while the Wirt Society prosecuted him. He was brought into court by the sheriff, Sargent. The witnesses for the state, Haralson and Shivers, were now brought forward. They both stated that Stewart had all that day been drinking red lemonade, giving it as their opinion that this was the most intoxicating drink sold. While under the influence of this intoxicant they thought he would do anything.

After being closely questioned, they were dismissed, the two witnesses for the defense taking their places. Rabb held, as his opinion, based upon observation only, that the above stated drink was not an intoxicant. Crawford said he had been drinking red lemonade all day, and knew positively that it had no intoxicating properties. After the witnesses were examined the lawyers on both sides made able speeches.

Throughout the trial the accused was as pale as death, and certainly had the sympathies of all present. When the verdict of "not guilty" was pronounced, Stewart was so relieved that he almost fainted.

Dr. Bragaw's large store is a credit to the town. It is quite metropolitan both in equipment and variety of stock.

Prof. T—h—What in England?

Cadet Green—Yes, sir, in New England.

Dr. B.—n—Mr. Armstrong, what are the laws for Reflection of Light?

Auburn has been recently honored at the University of Virginia. Upon the organization of the Alabama Club, Mr. J. F. Siler, a Junior at Auburn in 1893, was elected first vice-president, and T. Gardner Foster, '93, formerly of the undergraduate firm of Linton S. Smith and T. Gardner Foster, dancing masters, was elected cork puller.

After a silence of several months, the Orange and Blue once more greets its readers, and we hope that it is welcomed by them.

Heretofore the paper has been edited solely by the literary societies, but this year the Athletic Association has its representatives on the board of editors.

To successfully conduct a college paper, even with the aid of the students, is a very difficult undertaking. We are loath to say that the Orange and Blue of last year did not receive the support of the student body, and it is our ardent desire to have the students, faculty and alumni give all possible aid to the Editors and Business Manager, thereby helping to publish a paper that will be a credit to our college.

As formerly, the columns of the Orange and Blue will be open to the faculty, students and alumni, and any articles contributed by them will be appreciated.

It will be the untiring effort of the Editors and Business Manager to place the Orange and Blue in the ranks of the best college papers in the country, and they will be diligent in their work for the college and students.

Genial Charley Bragaw will soon be serving hot chocolate at his soda fountain.

The West Point cadets held an election on Nov. 3, resulting in McKinley, 190; Bryan 116. (Auburn didn't vote.)

College Y. M. C. A.

THE OPENING DAYS.

It was the pleasure of the majority of the Fall Campaign Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association to return to Auburn on Saturday before College opened on Wednesday, and to begin their pleasant work among the new students. The trains were met and the new students carried to their homes. If the members of the Association succeeded in making the new students feel at home during the first few days in their new surroundings, they were amply paid for the labor and expense of the campaign.

SOCIAL RECEPTION.

The social reception given by the Association to the new students on Friday, September 11, from 8 to 11 P. M., was attended by about 200+ and seemed to be enjoyed by all.

When one who has been connected with the College for about eight years said of the reception, "It is the best thing of the kind ever held here by any organization," the members are glad to be able to contribute this much to the happiness of those just entering our midst for the first time, and trust that this will not be the last nor the most good that we may be permitted to afford them.

A few hearty words of welcome were given the new students by the President of the Association, after which there followed short talks by Dr. Broun, Prof. Thach, and Dr. Rush. Then the audience intermingled generally, and the new students met the members of the faculty, the pastors of the town churches, the old students and one another. The evening being warm and close, the throat soon became dry, and all were invited to partake of the light refreshments served in the basement.

We were glad to welcome 50 students to

held in the Presbyterian church Sunday at 3 P. M. At that meeting we had the pleasure of hearing Mr. R. C. Spratling, a former President of this College Association and a warm friend of many of the old students. He spoke from the text, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel, for it is the power of God and salvation to everyone that believeth." Rom. 1:16. He spoke from the standpoint of a young man out in life. He told us that as he looks back now, viewing the many things he took part in while in College,—literary society, fraternity, football, and Young Men's Christian Association,—that the Association stands first in its sweet memories, enriching associations, elevating principles, and beneficial results. He advised all students to join the Association, not only for the benefit derived from it while in College, but for the incalculable good such a relation affords after leaving College.

A special meeting was held daily during the following week, at which much good was accomplished. The spiritual life of many Christian men was deepened, many who were cold were warmed up, and several were converted during the meeting.

We are glad to note that the student body seems to be more heartily in sympathy with the purpose and work of our Association than in former sessions. It is also pleasing, beyond expression, to be privileged to welcome in our midst the most noble and best set of new boys that has entered our institution for years.

This has been an exceptionally large opening for our College, more than 300 matriculating the first week. And it might be expected that the membership of the College Young Men's Christian Association would be considerably increased; but this increase has been far beyond the faith of its members. We have about 100 members now, and others are joining at almost every meeting.

It is the purpose of the Association to furnish a home for the young men entering our College where they will meet with the most wholesome influences, physically, mentally and morally, that can be afforded, so that they may become well-rounded, full-orbed, symmetrical men—men of power, influence and usefulness. Besides, there will be formed friendships among the members that cannot be severed by the cold hand of separation, but which will follow one another throughout life with sympathy, admiration and helpfulness.

To assist in carrying out this purpose there has been given to the Association a room, to be entered about Christmas, and to be used thereafter exclusively by the Association. This will be furnished with organ, carpet, bookcases, tables, chairs, etc., to be used by the members at any time they see fit throughout the week. We rejoice in the certainty of receiving such a pleasant, convenient and permanent home; and we not only welcome, but heartily invite all students who are in sympathy with its purpose to become members of this home.

PLAN FOR THE SESSION.

Our general plan is flexible, but may be stated briefly as follows:

Our regular weekly meetings will be held on Sunday afternoon, promptly at 3 o'clock, for the present, in the Presbyterian church. At these meetings, which hold for about 40 or 50 minutes, there will be delivered talks and addresses, by the students and members of the faculty, upon a variety of subjects.

Once a month there will be held a missionary meeting, when such topics as Present Day Disturbances, Foreign Lands, Missionary Biographies, Medical Missions, will be discussed. Our next one will be on "Armenian Cruelties." Four leaders are appointed and given three or four weeks to prepare, the best literature to be obtained being placed in their hands. Such meetings are always interesting, instructive and broadening.

The other weekly meetings are made up chiefly of song and praise services, short talks on College life, life after College, true happiness, Christian life, the deeper spiritual life, etc.

At some period within the next two months we hope to have a series of lectures by different members of the faculty upon the value of the Bible, to-wit: "The Bible as Literature," by Prof. Thach; "The Bible as History," by Dr. Petrie; "The Bible and the Revelations of Science," by Dr. Mell; "The Bible as a Book of Ethics," by Prof. Smith; "The Bible, the Christian's Food," by Dr. Ross. This series will be exceedingly interesting, instructive and beneficial to all who attend. The dates will be announced later.

BIBLE CLASSES.

We now have two classes with about 35 members all, it is to be hoped, doing regular, earnest, prayerful, daily study of the life, teachings and examples of Christ. Our Association has devoted special care to making its Bible classes for the present session interesting, instructive and helpful. The experience of the College Associations throughout the country is that the strongest moral and religious life is impossible without a practical working knowledge of the character, example and teachings of Christ, and this Association, therefore, appeals to every man in the institution who is interested in improving the moral and spiritual condition of our College to give some Bible class his active support.

The series to be used by the Association is progressive in character, as will be seen, and consequently every man who attends the classes throughout his College course should have a clear idea of Christ's life and its results upon men.

Program of courses:

Course I. (For those entering College for the first time, and for those who have never taken this course.) The Life of Christ as Revealed in the Four Gospels and as Studied in a Harmony of the Gospels. (Stevens & Burton.)

Course II. The Life and Epistles of Paul. (Salmon.)

Course III. Life of David as revealed in Psalms.

Course IV. The Divinity of Christ as related by John.

Course V. Life and Times of Jeremiah. (White.)

"Studies in the Acts" (Speer), and "Studies in the Man Christ Jesus" (Speer), may be substituted for Courses III and V.

A Bible Training Class is maintained every year, and is supposed to be taken by all Bible students at some time in their College course.

The text-books used in the several courses are usually inexpensive, and all are secured for the members of the classes at from 15 to 40 per cent. discount. The helps needed for constant use by the classes are furnished by the Association, while reference books for Bible classes will be found in the College Library, where the Librarian has kindly proposed to add from time to time any books needed by the classes.

Short and practical courses are offered in the study of missions. While we are rightly spending much time upon the study of God's Word, it is but proper to spend some time upon the study of God's work. This work is missions. The course for the first term is on Missionary Biography, which includes a brief study of the lives of Judson, Duff, McKenzie and Mackay.

The Association has started a missionary library, made up of a number of the latest and best books and pamphlets. It will be the pleasure of the Missionary Committee, of which Mr. J. W. King is Chairman, to furnish a book or pamphlet to any student who may desire to read it.

WORK OF PRAYER AND SELF-DENIAL

NOVEMBER 8TH TO 14TH.

Thirty years ago in Convention at Albany the Young Men's Christian Association inaugurated the observance of this annual week of prayer for young men and work among them in Christ's name. Wonderful answers to these prayers have been received in the gift and presence of the Holy Spirit in the work of the Association. Throughout the financial distress God has carried on His work among young men; and this because His people obeyed when Jesus said, "Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name; ask and ye shall receive that your joy may be full."

May we hope that all followers of Christ who read this and who have any interest in the welfare of young men will, during the week (Nov. 8th to 14th), pray regularly, earnestly and fervently for this class so peculiarly and powerfully tempted? It is to be hoped that this week will be one of self-denial also upon the part of all, especially the members of the Association, so that the work of this organization for 12,000,000 young men in North America will not be retarded.

Let us all seek the holy place of prayer, with pure, upright, surrendered lives that we may pray the fervent prayer of the righteous man which availeth much.

What good soda water we do get at Dr. Bragaw's.

Since making the change, Dr. Bragaw's store looks like it had "just come to town."

WANTED! Organizers for the Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen's Circle, in Alabama. Liberal inducements offered. For further information, address E. H. McArthur, State Hd. Con., Meridian, Miss.

Why would Jackson be a good student of history?

Because he keeps dates.

After the election Prof. S. said he would call on a friend and see about that little "agreement" he had made with him prior to the election. The boys don't call them "agreements," you bet.

Foot Ball.

THE TEAM AND ITS PROGRESS.

As the season of '96 is now more than half over, one is able to form some idea of the merits and demerits of our team. In the beginning we were severely handicapped by the loss of so many old men. There were no less than twenty-five scrub and varsity men of '95, who either failed to return or who were prohibited from playing by orders from home or from other causes. Thus we had the making of a scrub team as well as a varsity from new material.

With only three old varsity men to begin with, and such a loss from the scrub we had much to overcome. But under the wise direction of our esteemed coach, Mr. J. W. Heisman, who is in the opinion of the faculty and student body the best coach we have ever had or seen, we have now an eleven which we hope will bear Auburn's colors through a season crowned only with victory.

We do not mean to even attempt to predict the outcome of our season—(foot-ball is far too problematic for that)—nor do we mean to boast of what we will do—(we leave that to our Georgia friends)—but we build our hopes upon our faith in the pluck, courage and determination of our men, and we believe that by hard work and conscientious training they can give a good account of themselves in the end.

Much credit, in fact all the credit, if our defense in the Mercer game is due to our scrub. If it had not been that they had so often made plunge after plunge at our line, we would not have been able to withstand even the weak offense of Mercer.

It was not any specially good playing of our team in this game, which caused us to run up such a score; but the very poor defensive work of the Mercer team in the first half and their very high tackling throughout the game. Such tackling should prove a lesson to our men, and I hope they have profited by such an example.

We have never in the history of foot-ball here, had so many men to come out to play. Up to this time we have had over eighty men out this season.

This is a record of which we are justly proud, and one which we believe cannot be excelled by a college of our size, three-hundred and twenty-five students. To Mr. Kysler, the efficient captain and coach of the scrub, we owe many thanks. He has gathered around him a corking scrub and generally has a good number on the field each afternoon. We hope that he will continue his good work and that the scrub will come out in greater numbers than ever before for the next three weeks. Remember that the success of the varsity is in the hands of the scrub. If you come out in great numbers, thereby forcing the varsity to harder work, both on the offensive and defensive, our chances for success are much better than if only a handful of you turn out. Come out, boys, and help us on to victory.

There is one thing every man in college can do. If he cannot play ball he can yell and yell loud and often. Yet how often do you men who lie the side lines, cheer the men with a college yell?

Why don't you give them this encouragement?

Why don't you show them that you are interested in their work?

If you would yell more, the men would be urged to greater effort, and greater effort always brings improvement.

Let the men, who do not play, remember that it is as much their duty to yell as it is of the foot-ball men to play. Because the playing of the scrub and varsity men shows their college spirit and it is only by yelling that the student-body can show its patriotism.

Let us have much improvement in this line.

FLYING TACKLES.

Blair, sub-half U. of P. '95, is coaching Sewanee's team.

Hildebrand, guard of Vanderbilt '95, is coaching University of Mississippi.

Gordon Saucy, half Cornell '95, has been helping Pop Warner with Georgia's backs.

North Carolina is coached by Johnson, sub-end Princeton '95, and captained by Collier, right guard.

Brooke, a brother of George Brooke, Pennsylvania's great full-back, is to play this season with Tulane.

Georgia defeated Wofford last Saturday by a score of 26 to 0. They had in three subs throughout the game.

Will Wills is playing quarter for Tulane. In him they have an excellent man, and we are glad to note his success in making the team so early.

Vanderbilt is coached by Acton, a Harvard man. They seemed to be well pleased with his coaching. They have back Connell, Davis, Fitzgerald, Smith, Booger and Conner, of last year's team, besides receiving several varsity men from other colleges.

Georgia has the following men back: Nally, Price, Kent, Killorin, Middlebrooks, Moore, and Pomeroy. Spain, a sub-half in '94, Lovejoy, sub-full-back '95, and Cothran, their hundred yard sprinter, are also making a good show for the team. Georgia played North Carolina, October 31st in Atlanta.

Alabama has very nearly a new team. They are coached by Wagonhurst, tackle U. of P., '95. Shafer our captain and full-back for '95 is playing the same position for them this season. His playing was one of the features of their game last Saturday. The following men are old ones: Sloan, ex-Capt. '94, McEachin, Powers, Ferguson and Johnston.

To The Subscribers.

It is a condition and not a theory which confronts the management of the Orange and Blue.

The same question is agitating us that has just been agitating the whole nation, viz: the money question. But as our paper is neutral as regards political parties, so it is in its choice of money, and while we do not define our position on the silver question, we will give you sixteen good issues of the paper for one dollar in any legal tender currency.

Under last year's management, if the subscriber saw fit to be so kind as to present the Business Manager with a dollar, all well and good. If he did not see fit to do so, all well and good, as he received his paper just the same.

Now, as this procedure was not very conducive to the welfare of the paper, a slight change will be enacted this year.

Copies of our next issue will be sent to only those who have paid up their subscription, and all other names will be taken off our mailing list. This is but reasonable and right, and am sure will meet with the approbation of all fair minded subscribers.

I appeal to the student body to show their College spirit and subscribe for their College paper. There is hardly anything that so impresses a person with the development and progress of a College as the quality and character of its literary organ, and to make this successful and prosperous is impossible without the financial support and good will of the students, both individually and collectively.

Please respond to this appeal by handing in your subscription at once, or mailing the same to Wm. J. Nixon, Bus. Mgr. Box. 42.

Snow flakes and fine cakes, always fresh, at Jackson's.

Dr. B. (to new student)—"Have you a pistol, Mr. A?"

Mr. A. (promptly and with enthusiasm.) "No sir, but I can get one."

Notasulga goes solid for Kolb.

Try those fine prunes and dates at the Kandy'Kitehen.

"Have you heard Willie Hood sing 'Doris'?"

(Cadet W-t-s-e) "Give me a nickel's worth of explanation blanks, please, Mr. Burton."

"Here lies Ed. Joseph," remarked Hobdy when the former said he had the prettiest girl in the state.

"The fuzzy down upon Burton's upper lip, so soft, so sweet, so delicate, t're were enough to give a hen the pip."

Fenton, of Connecticut, is again with us to the dismay of those who are aspiring for first honor in Junior Civil Engineering.

Sergt. Clower—"Mark time, Mr. Whiteside!"

Cadet Whiteside—"Do you mean out loud, sir?"

(Lieut.—N-s-n) "Send Shepherd after Strayhorn."

(Cadet H-r-s-n) "Oh, that this too, too solid flesh would melt," etc.

We do not know whether or not to sympathize with Sgt.—, as it is reported that his best girl has given it to him in the neck. Now, those are aware who have been there, that this operation admits of variation.

"Are you going up (stairs), Dr.?"

Dr. Petrie—"No, I am already gone up."

"How so?"

Dr. P.—"Election went against me."

Question—"Did he have something up?"
